Benteli Verlag, Wabern-Bern 2005. 24,5 x 28,5 cm. 95 S. Leinengebunden mit Schutzumschlag.- Michael von Graffenried followed Peter and Astrid, a couple of drug addicts, around with his camera. His images show the uncertainty and difficulty of an everyday life plagued by drugs, addiction, dealing, jail and prostitution. But they also give a human face to those considered outsiders by society. An insight that is mostly uncompromising, sometimes compassionate, but always truthful.
